

ICCA UK AND IRELAND CHAPTER
ANNUAL CONFERENCE
Wednesday 27th and Thursday 28th March 2019
QUEEN'S SUITE, HARROGATE CONVENTION CENTRE

Please note this is the provisional agenda and may be subject to change.

Tuesday 26th March 2019

- 19.30 Speakers' dinner at The Orchid Restaurant, Harrogate (By invitation only – Speakers and Executive Committee)
- 19.30 Optional get-together for any delegates arriving on Tuesday – venue to be confirmed (at own cost)

Wednesday 27th March 2019 Dress Code: Business Casual

- From 09.30 Registration at the Harrogate Convention Centre
- 09.45 – 12.00 Optional guided tour to Ripley Castle and Gardens (please see separate additional fee on registration link)
- 12.00 to 12.30 Optional site inspection of Harrogate Convention Centre
Please meet at the ICCA UK & Ireland registration desk if you wish to participate. No requirement to pre-register.
- From 12.30 Networking lunch – foyer area, Queen's Suite
- 13.30 Welcome by Diane Waldron, Chair of ICCA UK&I Chapter and Brian Dobson, Head of Sales and Events, Harrogate Convention Centre
- 13.35 Elif Balci Fisunoglu, ICCA Regional Director (Europe)
- 13.45 James Rees: "My first 100 days as ICCA President!"

Wednesday 27th March 2019 - continued

- 14.00 Keynote, David Meade, Mindreader and Mentalist
"Psychology Insights" – personality profiling, how to communicate, lead, influence, and collaborate more effectively
- 15.00 Coffee break
- 15.30 Professor Emma Wood, Professor of Events Experience and Marketing –
"Emotional engagement and lasting impact through shared memory creation"
- 15.50 Sharon Canavar, Chief Executive, Harrogate International Festivals
How Harrogate has expanded its offering to encompass a year round programme of activity attracting over 90,000 people to the town.
- 16.10 Lindsay Ackers, Scottish Event Campus
Our 2018 Millennials competition winner speaks about what she got out of attending the ICCA Congress in Dubai
- 16.30 Thoughts and actions from David Meade
- 17.00 Finish
- 18.45 Drinks Reception at the Pump Rooms sponsored by Slingsby's Gin.
- 19.30-19.45 Walking transfer to the Royal Hall, Harrogate Convention Centre
- 20.00 Gala Dinner in the beautiful Grade II listed surroundings of the Royal Hall built in 1903.
- 22.30 Optional – After Dinner drinks at The Potting Shed (at own cost).

Thursday 28th March 2019 Dress Code: Business Casual

- 08.00 Coffee/tea on arrival and networking
- 08.30 David Meade - Wake Up Call
- 09.00 Peter Dodd, Welcome to Yorkshire Commercial Director
Bringing the UCI World Cycling Championships to Yorkshire
- 09.20 Adam Baggs, Soaring Worldwide
PR & Communications: Making first impressions count and how to get your messaging right.
- 09.40 Laura Tully, Manchester Central introduces the ICCA UK & Ireland Chapter's new competition to win a place at the ICCA Congress in Houston and shows the 3 shortlisted entries
- 10.00 Celena Fernandez, Head of Environment, Compass Group UK & Ireland (speaker sponsored by Levy's)
"Changing the Environment with Events – how venues and caterers can work together (including single use plastics, food waste and plant food menus)
- 10.20 Coffee break
- 10.40 The Real Dividends of Legacy Work - Lasting far beyond this conference and our agenda, David Meade will show how delegates and associations can use their events to create a meaningful contribution that will have tangible dividends.
- 12.30 Welcome to Wales for 2020
- 12.45 Diane Waldron, Chair of ICCA UK & Ireland Chapter - announcement of winner of the ICCA UK and Ireland Chapter Annual Conference 2021.
- 13.00 David Meade – closing session
- 13.30 Networking Lunch and Finish.
- 14.30 – 16.30 Bidding Workshop – moderated by Caroline Mackenzie, Director, Global Association Partners. Pre-registration required.

With sincere thanks to all of our sponsors:

